Adventure Awaits: Your Moroccan Journey Begins

May 26 - June 10, 2026

(shorter options available)

Get ready for a Moroccan adventure that dives far beyond the usual tourist trail. With Steppin' Out, every moment is crafted to bring you closer to the heartbeat of local life—through authentic encounters, shared meals, hands-on experiences, and the kind of unexpected discoveries that only come from traveling with people who know the land.

This 16-day expedition takes you from the electric energy of Marrakech's medinas to the soaring High Atlas Mountains and deep into the vast silence of the Sahara. You'll bike through villages where kids race alongside you, cook shoulder-to-shoulder with chefs in bustling souks, hike rugged mountain passes, and share tea with nomadic families who live by the rhythm of the desert.

Along the way, you'll meet artisans, women's cooperatives, potters, musicians, and mountain guides—people who open their doors and their stories to you. You'll climb dunes at sunrise, learn to sandboard, wander czars built of earth and straw, explore hidden valleys, and stargaze under skies untouched by city lights.

This isn't just a trip. It's an odyssey—one filled with color, grit, warmth, wild landscapes, ancient pathways, and genuine human connection. If you're ready to explore Morocco with curiosity, courage, and a sense of wonder, Steppin' Out will take you there.

Let the adventure begin.

Group Adventure

October 8 - 15, 2026

Where Fire Meets Ice and Adventure Meets Awe

We have an exciting group adventure to Iceland coming toward the end of 2026, and October is truly one of the most magical times to experience it.

This is when the famous Northern Lights begin to appear, a breathtaking, once in a lifetime sight that feels both powerful and peaceful at the same time. Picture crisp, clear nights, bright stars overhead, and soft waves of glowing color quietly dancing across the sky. It is one of those moments that stays with you forever.

I recently traveled there to scope out some of the most incredible experiences we can share together on our Steppin' Out group trip. We will descend into stunning ice caves, which are honestly not as scary as they sound 🙄, explore dramatic lava fields in 4x4 vehicles, and ride Icelandic horses through wide, untouched pastures. It truly feels like stepping into another world.

And after a day of adventure, imagine soaking in warm volcanic waters while snow surrounds you. It is the perfect mix of excitement, relaxation, and pure wonder. Along the way we will also experience local life, taste unique Icelandic foods, and learn about the customs and ancient legends that make this place so special.

October will come faster than you think. If reading this makes you feel excited, that is your sign. Come join us.
