

To All Who Celebrate,
Shana Tova

We wish you a year of health, peace, joy, laughter, connections and love.

We just returned from our Green Lakes trip and while so many things made it great, the connections that formed in such a short period stuck out the most for me. It reminded me what Steppin' Out is all about... to bring people together in a shared experience that make long lasting connections. I think now with so many stresses in life, so many hardships in the world, that being with others and sharing a laugh is what is needed to keep us sane and above water. I hope this year you find an opportunity to step out (pun intended) of the daily grind and make time for family, friends (old friends or new ones) and surround yourself with other kind, supportive people.

With much love,

Robin

Our short weekend to Green Lakes, Wisconsin.
