

A Front Row Seat to Africa's Wild

Don’t miss out on the last chance to save $100 and get our generous and flexible 16-month installment plan on our African Adventure scheduled for August 21 - August 31 in Tanzania with an extension to Rwanda until September 5, 2025!

Now is the perfect time to plan to embark on an extraordinary journey through the stunning landscapes of Tanzania and Rwanda. This offer is only available until October 31st, so act quickly! Our incentive is due to the popular time of year and lodges are filling up.

Prepare to be captivated as you witness the breathtaking Great Migration in Tanzania, where you'll have a front-row seat to the remarkable spectacle of wildebeest crossing the river, seeing wild cats, giraffes and others in a thrilling display of nature. This trip is designed for those who seek genuine connections with Africa’s wild essence, allowing you to engage with local cultures—whether it's roasting coffee beans with Mama Anna, sharing in traditional hunting practices with the bushmen, or hiking alongside the Maasai tribe.

In Rwanda, you'll have the once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to encounter majestic gorillas in their natural habitat. This incredible experience allows you to witness these magnificent creatures up close, fostering a deeper appreciation for their beauty and the importance of conservation. Engage with the local community as we name a new baby gorilla and immerse yourself in a vibrant local music festival. With insights from knowledgeable guides about the gorillas' behavior and habitat, this adventure promises to connect you to Africa's rich wildlife heritage in unforgettable ways

Experience the wonders of Rwanda and Tanzania without the stress. If you'd like to discuss an extension for this offer, please email us for more details!

Discover Peru's Vibrant Heart

A journey of cultural immersion

Peru captivates with its contrasts—from the Amazon's lush canopy to the vibrant bustle of Lima and the ancient secrets of the Andes. Each region holds a unique story: the Sacred Valley, once the heart of the Inca Empire, is alive with centuries-old traditions, bustling markets, and awe-inspiring ruins. Step into the colorful streets of Cusco, where every corner echoes with music and artisans share their craft. Journey deeper into the Andes to meet indigenous communities who welcome you into their world, teaching weaving techniques that have endured for generations and inviting you to share in a traditional Andean meal.

With Steppin' Out Adventures, your journey becomes as unique as your own curiosity. Picture a custom itinerary tailored to your passions—rafting on the Urubamba River, tasting world-renowned Peruvian dishes like ceviche and rocoto relleno, or standing before Machu Picchu at dawn as mist rises from the valley. From the warmth of welcoming communities to the thrill of exploring untouched landscapes, our team ensures each day is filled with moments you'll carry forever.

Steppin' Out can help create a trip for you and your friends/family/club. If you're ready for a shared adventure, join our group's journey to Peru in November 2025. Stay tuned—more details coming soon!

To dive even deeper into the marvels of Peru, check out our latest blog post and let your imagination wander through the Sacred Valley's boundless richness and heart.

How would you want to reach Machu Picchu?

As we prepare for our Peru Adventure, Machu Picchu is, of course, a must. But there are many options to get there. You can do a 4-day hiking/camping trip along the Inca trail, you can do a4-5 trek on the trail behind Machu Picchu and stay in mountain lodges instead of tents, you can do a one day hike with an overnight in a hotel or you don't even have to hike at all. In planning our November trip, we'd love to know what is most appealing to you. Please share your preferred overnight accommodation option by taking this quick survey!

Community Travel Q&A Session Recap

We debuted our open travel forum on Tuesday and were excited to see people who were both veteran Steppin' Out travelers and others who have been on our mailing list for years, while brand newbies popped in to see what we were all about. Our goal is to create a forum on the last Tuesday of every month where travelers can ask anything from itinerary details to travel tips, packing advice, and get insider insights into the destinations we visit. It will also be a place to share thoughts on locations. This past week we focused on Bhutan and had a lively discussion about "normal": travel vs off the beaten path travel.

If you missed it, don’t worry—join us next time! Our next live Q&A is on Tuesday, November 29th at 7:30 PM Central, featuring Belize as our destination highlight. Discover what makes this adventure special, from its jungles to vibrant reefs and conservation efforts. In additon, we are going to focus on a travel tip each session, and our November pick will be: Travel Insurance--is it necessary?

Don’t miss this chance to connect with others, share ideas, ask questions, and get inspired for your next trip with Steppin' Out Adventures!

Volunteer in Israel

Grant-Funded Winter Volunteering Mission

After doing my own volunteer work in Israel, which was one of the best experiences I had, I thought I'd share an opportunity presented by the Jewish Federation for those who are between 16 and 40 years old, from North America or Israel, and need financial support to volunteer, here's an exciting opportunity: a grant-funded 8-day mission in Israel! You'll spend a week based in Jerusalem, engaging in meaningful volunteer projects, celebrating Shabbat, and connecting with Israeli peers. This all-inclusive program covers everything except your travel to Israel.

Mission Dates:
November 24 - December 1
December 22 - December 29

December 29 - January 5
