

Can you believe it is the end of 2023? While it's been a tough year, there have been some really nice highlights that added joy. I loved putting together a custom trip for a family to go to Cuba and explore the Jewish history there. Our trip to Tanzania and Rwanda was one of the most magical trips we've done there, I think because all the travelers were so touched by the people and community they met along the way.

Most recently, I worked with Honeymoon Israel, helping them put together a couple's retreat in the Georgia mountains. And while there, I had a little gathering in Atlanta and met some amazing travelers who I can't wait to see on future trips.

Stay tuned for 2024 as we are introducing a few domestic trips into our calendar - Bourbon trail in Kentucky, Niagara Falls, Moab, Utah and Green Lake, Wisconsin for starters!

Wishing everyone the best for 2024,

Robin

One of our Steppin' Out founding members has fallen in love with Green Lake, Wisconsin (yes, the place where Steppin Out used to do cross country ski weekends) and is involved with a development project with a hotel, bar, spa and restaurant.. He packaged it together to create a wonderful New Year's program, with a special package for Steppin' Outers. It is not a Steppin' Out event, but we will keep track of those who sign up with Steppin' Out and keep you together. A great last minute getaway for those in the area.

Celebrate New Year's Eve in Green Lake. The bash features live music, appetizing buffets, and a champagne toast at midnight, along with drink packages. Enjoy a festive atmosphere with games, raffles, and dance.

Steppin' Out package includes

ISRAEL AT WAR: What Can You Do?

I am planning on going to Israel to volunteer mid January for 2-3 weeks if anyone wants to join me. I'm happy to organize for anyone who wants to join me through the different daily activities I have come across. If you want to join me, or want to know how to get on the different list serves with opportunities, email me.

Also, someone had compiled a list of businesses in Israel that are owned by soldiers who are in the army who would love support.

There is also a comprehensive list of

Do You Use AMAZON?

GIVE THANKS. GIVE BACK ...

When you make a purchase through our Amazon Link on the website, we get a small percentage back that Steppin' Out uses as gifts for the communities we visit on our group trips. Because of you, we put smiling faces on hundreds of kids who received pens and pencils in Tanzania, we added to warm clothing fund for orphaned monks in Bhutan.

Make your purchase and do do good.

Morocco, September 5-15, 2024

While we are putting together this trip to Morocco, I have been in contact with my guides there about adding some volunteer work to help the people, especially in the Atlas Mountains get their feet back on the ground. Imagine a visit to the Blue City and the markets of Fez, where we will have a half day lesson with a potter's family. Embark on an orientation walk through Marrakesh, immerse yourself in the Medina's vibrant atmosphere, and marvel at the Bahia Palace's splendor. Venture to the Atlas Mountains, where you'll learn about the unique lives of rural Berber women and even discover traditional bread-making methods. Journey to the majestic Todra Gorge and explore a fossil factory. Traverse the desert in a jeep, visiting nomad settlements and local farms to understand their distinctive ways of life. Chill out in your desert camp awaits with a breathtaking sunset over the Sahara dunes, followed by a sunrise camel ride and experience the thrill of sand surfing. Details are being worked out. Thinking early September.
